June 3, 2009 – Being the top Canadian distributor, AFTOU is the first to receive a Street Fig Micro Center exclusive Re:Vision product. Based on the popular game “Street Figurines”, this 3mm, mini figurine is a must-have for all the Street Fig fans out there! The limited edition Re:Vision will only be sold through this website at no additional cost for you! Don’t miss your chance to get this exclusive! “As a Canadian distributor, we are excited to be the first to receive Street Fig Re:Vision. We have been given the opportunity to release this new product to the Canadian market, and as a result, an additional copy has been reserved for the Canadian market’s exclusive distribution. As our relationship with Street Fig continues to grow, we look forward to providing more, exclusive products to our Canadian customers.” – Tanya Tannis, Vice President, Canadian Sales, AFTOU Available for $7.95 CAD on the AFTOU website. Street Fig Re:Vision Street Fig Re:Vision comes with a new, translucent body. The texture applied to the figurine gives it a glossy look, with deep black at the highlights. It is evident that this figurine is made with a great level of care, such as the pink thread and the exquisite hand painting. ‘Sandy’ invasion: A week of 70mph winds and flooding brought woes for hundreds of thousands It was supposed to be a tale of two armies, with a historic election in the Republic and the UK on a knife edge. But instead, a week of 70mph winds and extraordinary flooding has left tens of thousands of people homeless and dozens of trains stranded. It has been a miserable week for the Republic, a country built on a reputation for storms. Hurricane-force winds hammered the Irish coast from the west in the week leading up to the elections, with the equivalent of a super-typhoon bringing havoc across the country. Shoals in Mayo saw a 4ft wall of water sweep through the village of Castlebar after Storm Dennis roared into Ireland with gusts of up to 66mph. Cyclones swept across the airwaves, clogged roads and flooded homes. Monro’s cathedral was drenched, as was All Hallows Church in Dublin, and Eglinton Street in the centre
