The mission of LCSO is to serve the needs of the citizens of Lucas County, Ohio by providing safety, security and protection. LCSO is comprised of 46 full-time sworn and civilian personnel. The sheriff's department also has 26 part-time sworn personnel. Altogether, LCSO has approximately 160 full-time employees. This department is also supported by the Lucas County Joint Office of Emergency Management as well as the established Auxiliary Units. History and Development In 1990 the Lucas County Sheriff Department changed into a new department due to mergers with other law enforcement agencies. From that point, LCSO operated as the first county office to employ full-time, sworn personnel. In 1992, the office was relocated from the courthouse to its present location. LCSO was given the task of providing security for the new Lucas County Courthouse. With that mandate the office began to grow from the initial 10 employees. Today LCSO is the largest law enforcement agency in Lucas County, with over 60 employees and 130 members.dojo.provide("dojox.charting.enhanced.widget.Polar"); dojo.require("dijit.form.Button"); dojo.declare("dojox.charting.enhanced.widget.Polar", dijit.form.Select, { // templateString: dojo.cache("dojox.charting.enhanced", "templates/Polar.html"), drawingArea: null, initiated: false, postCreate: function(){ this.inherited(arguments); this.initiated = true; this.setLabel("X:"); this.setLabel("Y:"); this.setValue("0"); }, setValue: function(/String/ val){ if(this.initiated){ 3e33713323
